RAFT UP HAPPY THANKSGIVING

RAFT UP

Not a super large raft up, but well attended by the members. I think this flotilla had 9 memberships represented at this great outing. The weather was Super and the food outstanding. BLACK FIN'S Jeff Tom provided lamb chops, bar-b-que'd superbly by Sean Lawlor. The non-dingy fleet, consisted of "BLACK FIN", "ESCAPE ROUTE", "TEASER" AND "DIRTY DEEDS". The activities started around noon with members still being ferried over around 6ish. Don't know how long the partying lasted but an e-mail sent out indicated the group was glad to get "ESCAPE ROUTE" back to his slip for the night. Haven't heard if anyone was successful at hooping for lobster. All-N-All the Raft up was a success.

09 AWARDS BANQUET FEB 13, 2010

HEARD ON THE DOCKS

- Is it time to have a little winter fishing at Big Bear behind Steve and April's cabin?

View from Steve & April's Cabin

- Or should we wait for summer?

The Front View

- If "COMANCHE" had attended the Raft up and side tied to "BLACK FIN", there would have been two former "WILD BILLS" now owned by Dentists together.

OUTSTANDING JUNIOR ANGLER POINTS

- Would you believe that Dave Devoy is still tuna fishing?
- If you find any coolant floating around, it might belong to Dave Peter's "TEASER"

FISHING

The fat lady has “Sung”! On November the 6th I went for a ride with Rick Fuller aboard the “ESCAPE ROUTE”. We had smooth water and great weather as we covered the areas of the 14 mile bank, the 277 and the 350 spot but nothing in the way of any type of fish. There have been reports of a few bonito being caught but nothing else besides rockfish.
